The Formal Dedication of the German Orphan Asylum.

The new building of the German Orphan Asylum was dedicated yesterday afternoon in the presence of an immense concourse of German citizens.
The asylum is situated on Good Hope Hill, not far from the village of Anacostia.

The exercises were opened on the steps of the building by the formal order of the key. Chairman George J. Seufert, of the building committee to President Jacob Jose, who delivered them to the superintendent.

The doors were then thrown open and the assemblage made to order by President Jose, who made an address in the German language, which was liberally applauded. Mr. Frank Clady followed, with an excellent poetic prologue, spoken in German.

At the conclusion of Mr. Clady's poem, the United States and German flags were raised by the Ladies' Aid Society and received by Miss Clara Brandy, and raised to the peals of the bugle staff amidst the prolonged cheers of the multitude.

Mr. Hugo Kuerschner delivered a German oration, after which the singing societies sang the German hymn, "Das Deutsche Lied."

Mr. Simon Wolf was then introduced and delivered an oration in English, doling himself chiefly to urging the assemblage to liberally assist the institution financially.

Commodore Ross followed in a brief speech complimenting the Germans upon their success in building the asylum.

The new asylum is two stories in height, with a pitched slate roof and basement, and is situated in a grove of trees and shrubbery. It is built of brick and stone and will accommodate about eighty inmates. The building was designed by Architect Diddel and constructed by the firm of Diddel and Company.

Laying a Church Corner-Stone.
The corner-stone of the new St.
Ignatius Catholic Church at Oxon Hill, Prince George's County, Md., was laid yesterday afternoon with impressive ceremonies. A large number of the congregation of St. Teresa Church, in Anacostia, and people from the neighboring villages were present. Rev.
Joseph A. Cimino of St. Mac's Church, Maryland, performed the ritualistic part of the ceremony, and the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Father Charles Currier of the Redemptorist Order. The pastor of St. Ignatius, Rev. Father Thomas Hughes, assisted in the service. Music was furnished by the National Guard Band. St. Ignatius is one of the oldest churches in Southern Maryland.

Funeral of the Late Judge Snell.
The funeral of the late Judge Snell took place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from the Metropolitan M. E. Church.

The pall-bearers were the Associated Christian Ministers, Rev. Dr. W. C.
Dodge and Dr. C. B. Smith; on the part of Eli Carron Post, G. A. R., Messrs. C.
Cole and Augustus S. Worth. Remarks were made by Bishop Newman and Rev. Dr. Cooley, pastor of the church. Bishop Newman, before his elevation, was pastor of the church, when it was attended by President Grant and his family.

Brother Tobias' Successor.
Brother Tobias, who has had charge of St. John's College for many years, will take a short vacation at Ammandale, Md., after which he will join his brother, Rev. Dr. J. F. Fabian, who has succeeded Brother Tobias at St. John's, has made many important improvements in the college course, among them being the introduction of instruction in telegraphy and type writing.

Handy with a Knife.
The police yesterday succeeded in arresting Charles Ross, a notorious exacted man, who, on Saturday night, while engaged in an affray with Charles Foster and George Butler, in George town, stabbed them both. While the wounds of the injured men are not considered dangerous, it will probably go hard with Ross, as he has given the police a good deal of trouble of late.

Gallagher's Last Gasps.
Tim and Maggie Gallagher, who have a place of business on North Capitol street, yesterday made an assault upon Frank Best, Mr. Gallagher locked him down with a chair, while in the face with her fist. Both were arrested and taken to the U street station, where they furnished collateral for their appearance in the Police Court.

TODD HALL'S CONVERSATION.
He Taught About It to Large Audiences Yesterday.

The largest audience that has assembled in gymnasium hall of the Y. M. C.
A. at the Sunday afternoon services, was that yesterday on the occasion of an address made by Todd Hall, the Baltimore detective. Not only was every seat occupied, but requisitions were made upon every available chair in the reading room and parlor.

Todd Hall told the story of his conversion at one of Mr. Moody's meetings held nearly eleven years ago at Maryland Institute Hall, Baltimore.
Todd Hall has been a great sinner and calyzed young men to become fully reconciled with Jesus so as to avoid the pitfalls that would entice them when they became older and were tempted by the lusts of the eye and the flesh. He distributed a number of books at the close of the meeting which shook him by the hand.

At first he spoke at the Central Union Mission, the hall not being half large enough to accommodate all who came to hear him. Many persons were turned away. Mr. Hall has proved to be as successful an evangelist as he is clever as a detective.

GOOD TEMPLARS

Making Preparation to Celebrate Their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

The Good Templars of the District are making extensive arrangements for the celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary, which occurs next month. The Right-Worthy Grand Lodge will have an able representative present, and the various Grand Lodges will send not only their officers but in many instances entire subordinate lodges from distant jurisdictions.

Several prominent members of the Grand Army of the Republic are arranging for the institution of a lodge of Good Templars in connection with the celebration, composed of Grand Army members, their wives and daughters.
The first lodge organized in the District, twenty-five years ago, was composed largely of soldiers just returned from the war.

The Good Templars' meeting last night at the hall, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Four-and-a-half street, was one of the most successful of the season. Addresses were made by Dr. E. W. Kirby and J. L. Bassett.
Chaplain Blackford conducted the devotional exercises and Mrs. Carle Smith conducted the singing.

PROBLEM OF POVERTY.

Dr. Corey's Ideas of What Should be Done to Relieve It.

The Rev. Dr. Corey, pastor of Metropolitan M. E. Church, has been delivering a series of Sunday night lectures upon various problems, that last night being the "Problem of Poverty." Dr.
Corey, after referring to the great wealth of the country, said: "Yet, nevertheless, poverty abounds; the tide of poverty and misery instead of receling is getting higher and higher." He adduced various reasons as the causes of poverty, among them one being the liquor traffic. The salaried, he said, were receiving stations for the liquor house and that they were impoverishing the Republic. The well deserving poor, he said, must be relieved by the rich, but that pauperism must be annihilated. To relieve the poor is to improve society. He thought that ignorance was one cause of poverty, and that another was laziness. He had no use whatever for those who lived upon their wife, and who in the course of time, through moral gravity, reached their proper level. The "Educational Problem," will be the next in the series.

Dr. Elliott Lands America.

Rev. Dr. Elliott, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, spoke last night upon "Impressions of Travel." In the course of his remarks he said: "The American cannot but be daunted at the homage paid to the rising and rising glories of his own country, and cannot but feel that if she is to be a great power, she must occupy grave and high responsibilities. If in Europe the worshiper of the unseen turns to the East, the worshiper of things seen and temporal turns to the West—to the great republics of the West. It might seem that never does a ship let go her moorings for a voyage from Europe to your country but that some emigrant for America is on her deck." The congregation was a large one.
